Next Week: September 18th-22nd Maplewood High School will be participating with thousands of other students around the United State in the "Start with Hello" program. This week-long student advocacy and support program centers on teens reaching out and supporting one another creating a culture of kindness and community throughout our school. There are various activities and dress up days along with social emotional lessons for all students in grades 7-12. Join with other students around the nation to "Start with Hello." Monday is Hey day! Reach out and say hello to someone who has lived in another state! Wear yellow or green to support inclusion of all students!!

NHS: Attn. juniors and seniors! If you received a National Honor Society application from Mrs. Stechschulte, it is due by Thursday, Sept. 21st. No late applications will be accepted.

Volleyball: Your Lady Rockets defeated Lordstown in 3 sets. The JV also won in 2 sets. Their next match is away at St. John's on Monday.
